

Bklyn BookMatch African American History and Literature

books related to Black history, culture and literature.

Created by BookMatchLibrarian

The Black history of the White House

Clarence Lusane.

This work links African American history and the careers of various American presidents.

Kindred

Octavia E. Butler.

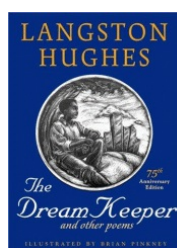

This novel is written by a notable African American author.

Native son

by Richard Wright ; with an introduction, "How 'Bigger' was born," by the author ; afterword by John Reilly.

This work is a challenged or banned book by an African American Author.

The dream keeper and other poems

Langston Hughes ; illustrations by Brian Pinkney.

An alternative look into the black experience through lyrical poems, songs, and blues.